To The Sessions Court, Nashik

Subject: Bail Application Under Section 479 of the BNS in FIR No. 271/2024

Most Respectfully Submitted

1. That the present application is being filed by the Applicant, Raju Sharma, seeking bail in the above-mentioned FIR, wherein the Applicant has been charged under sections BNS 303 and BNS 318. 2. That the FIR was registered on 15/08/2024, at the Nashik Road Police Station, and the Applicant has been in custody for the past 14 months. 3. That the Applicant is a first-time offender and has no prior criminal history. 4. That the Applicant has served a significant portion of the maximum possible sentence, having spent 14 months in custody, which is approximately 38.9% of the maximum sentence of 3 years.

Grounds for Bail

1. That the Applicant is eligible for bail under Section 479 of the BNS, as the Applicant has served more than 33% of the maximum possible sentence, which is the threshold for first-time offenders. 2. That the right to bail under Section 479 of the BNS is a statutory right, and the Applicant is entitled to be released on bail, having fulfilled the conditions stipulated under the said section. 3. That the continued detention of the Applicant would be unjustified, as the Applicant has already spent a significant amount of time in custody and has demonstrated a willingness to abide by the law.

Prayer Wherefore, in the premises, it is most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to grant bail to the Applicant, Raju Sharma, under Section 479 of the BNS, and release the Applicant from custody, subject to such conditions as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit.

Verification I, Raju Sharma, the Applicant, do hereby verify that the contents of the above application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
